My Wife And My Sister Rescued Me From Addiction By Checking Me In At Executive Detox

I was slowly killing myself, but I did not realize. By the time my family members sought help for me, I really believe that I no longer cared. Looking back, it was such a scary ordeal. High-Class Detox

But the purpose of this letter is not to dwell on the negative. Instead, I want to express my gratitude to the staff of Pur Detox for being there for me when I was about to give up on myself and they didn't.

If you happen to be reading this, are you struggling with your own addiction? Maybe you have a family member or even a friend who life is in shambles. You know the signs. You can read the symptoms. It is up to you to reach out and help your loved one and provide what he or she needs the most. If no one had taken these difficult steps on my behalf, I would not be writing this letter today.

Words can not express my undying gratitude for the time that I spent with the professionals at P
